ABBREVIATIONS IN THIS DIRECTORY.

N. S. E. W. for the several points of the compass—n. near—b. between—h. house—fr. from—c. corner—Av. avenue—op. opposite—ab. above—be. below—junc. junction—Y. C. Yale College.

The names of streets are given without the superfluous repetition of the word street.

THE present number of the NEW HAVEN DIRECTORY contains about 2750 names—420 more than the first number, published in February, 1840. About 200 of the list for 1840 are not to be found in this volume, consequently, there are upwards of 600 new names; and the publisher confidently hopes that he has so far succeeded in correcting the errors and supplying the deficiencies of last year, as to make his work acceptable and useful to the public.

Many notices of private and public enterprize, and improvements, might be collected within the limits of our city, which would render our humble work more interesting and valuable; but, as we are only permitted to stretch ourself "according to the covering," it has been thought best, as soon as practicable, to favor the public with such matter in another form.

No. 2 of the New Haven Directory is therefore given to the citizens with the expectation that it will receive support sufficient to ensure its annual publication.

INTRODUCTION.

THE present number of the NEW HAVEN DIRECTORY contains about 2750 names—420 more than the first number, published in February, 1840. About 200 of the list for 1840 are not to be found in this volume, consequently, there are upwards of 600 new names; and the publisher confidently hopes that he has so far succeeded in correcting the errors and supplying the deficiencies of last year, as to make his work acceptable and useful to the public.

Many notices of private and public enterprize, and improvements, might be collected within the limits of our city, which would render our humble work more interesting and valuable; but, as we are only permitted to stretch ourself "according to the covering," it has been thought best, as soon as practicable, to favor the public with such matter in another form.

No. 2 of the New Haven Directory is therefore given to the citizens with the expectation that it will receive support sufficient to ensure its annual publication.

CITY GOVERNMENT.

The city holds its privileges and immunities under a charter which was granted by the Legislature in January, 1784, to which additions and amendments have been passed at various times.

The administration of the fiscal, prudential and municipal departments of the city, with the conduct, direction and government of its affairs is vested in a Mayor, four Aldermen and twenty Common Councilmen.

The Board of Common Council (of which the Mayor is moderator) is composed of the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Councilmen. The meetings of the Board are held on the first Tuesday in each Month. It has authority to make by-laws relative to markets, commerce, city jurors, streets, highways, nuisances, wharves, anchoring and mooring of vessels, shade trees--public or private, trespasses, public walks, buildings, chimneys, fires, produce, city watch, burials, public lights and lamps, the mode of taxation, and the infliction of penalties for the breach of such by-laws. Such by-laws to be approved by the city in legal meeting assembled.

The annual meeting of the city is holden on the Monday preceeding the first Tuesday in June, when the Mayor, (who is also judge of the City Court,) a Clerk, four Aldermen, (two of whom are designated as Associate Judges,) twenty Common Councilmen, two Sheriffs, a Treasurer, an Auditor, and a Collector of Taxes, are chosen by ballot.

The City Court has cognizance of all civil causes where the title of land is not concerned, and has the same power and authority, and proceeds in the same manner in granting executions as the County Courts of this State, provided the cause of action arise within the limits, and one or both of the parties is a resident of the city; and an appeal from this Court lies to the Superior Court.

The Mayor and Aldermen are severally possessed of the powers and authority which by law are given to a Justice of the Peace.

The aggregate amount of hose belonging to these Companies is about 3,000 feet.

In addition to the above, the by-laws of the city (by which the department is governed,) provide for a "Sack Company." The object of this Company is to secure and protect books, papers and other valuables, in case of fire. It does not appear, however, that any such company is now in existence.

In making repairs, or creating bills in any way against the Fire Department, particular care should be taken to act under the authority of the proper Standing Committee.

GENERAL STATE HOSPITAL SOCIETY.

This Society was chartered in May, 1826, and an appropriation of $5,000 was made by the State to aid in carrying out its objects. Handsome sums have been contributed by individuals in different parts of the State, and the Medical Institution of Yale College pays a yearly stipend. Its building, which was finished in 1832, is situate at the head of Broad street, between Congress and Davenport Avenues. It consists of a center and two wings, whole length 130 feet; breadth in the center, 48 feet. There are about twenty rooms besides those in the basement, and a large room in the attic for operations. The building is of stone and stuccoed on the outside. In front of the center are four columns, constructed after Grecian models.

NEW HAVEN YOUNG MENS' INSTITUTE.

Founded in 1826.

Henry White, President. J. B. Robertson, Vice President. J. P. Hamaston, Secretary.

This Society, formerly known as the "Young Mechanics Institute," has, during the past year, under its new name and organization, increased its library to nearly four thousand volumes; established a well furnished reading room, consisting of about forty newspapers, and twenty monthly and quarterly periodicals. A course of weekly lectures is given before the members, during the winter. The institution was incorporated at the last session of the Legislature. The utility of this Institution, and the small tax incurred by its members, ought to induce every member of the community to support it. The terms are

For all persons under 18 years of age, 2 00. Between 18 and 20 years of age, 3 00. Over 21 years of age, 4 00.

Arrangements are making to locate it at Saunders' Hall, 51 Orange street.

POST OFFICE.

Office corner of Chapel and Union streets.

WILLIAM H. JONES, Post Master.

Open for the delivery of Letters from half-past 7 o'clock, A.M. till 7 o'clock, P.M. in the winter—and from 7 A.M. till half-past 7 P.M. in the summer.
